Working Animals Given a Second Chance at Life

&lt;&lt;First Name>>, we wanted to reassure you that Animal Aid Abroad are committed to supporting the rescued animals at our partner groups' sanctuaries, despite the discontinuation of our overseas sponsorship program. Thanks to our generous sponsors and donors, we are continuing to support:

- 18 equines at Animal Nepal's Dukuchhap Sanctuary
- 8 camels, donkeys, monkeys and a dog at Help in Suffering's Camel Rescue Centre in India
- 6 donkeys at Mannar Donkey Sanctuary in Sri Lanka
- 11 equines and a bull at Friendicoes' Gurgaon Sanctuary in India
- 6 donkeys at the Pegasus Sanctuary in Israel

Many animals requiring sponsorship have endured harsh lives of neglect, abuse or horrific working conditions. For instance, Jackie is a mule who was rescued from Bungamati Brick Kiln in May, 2019. He was forced to work and carry heavy bricks, despite having an untreated fracture on his right hind leg. Now living at Animal Nepal's sanctuary, Jackie has completely transformed.

Other animals have been abandoned or subjected to unthinkable cruelty, such as Rahat. Rahat was caught by a gang of boys and set on fire. A local found Rahat shaking in pain and kindly called AAA partner group, Pegasus. Pegasus rescued Rahat and nursed him through months of burn therapy, daily treatments and medications. Rahat is now safe in their sanctuary, surrounded only by love.

&lt;&lt;First Name>>, your financial support ensures once-mistreated animals, like Jackie and Rahat, are able to live comfortably within beautiful sanctuaries around the world. Sponsorship and donations provide them with safe spaces in which to live, play and rest; nutritious food; veterinary treatment; TLC from animal carers and companionship from other rescued animals.

Providing a Lifeline for Working Equines in India

In New Delhi, AAA partner group, Friendicoes, are always busy providing vital, free veterinary care for working equines who would otherwise suffer and remain untreated. Some of the cases seen throughout August included: colic, lacerated chest and shoulder wounds, maggot-infested wound on a foal, hip wound, skin infection and a neck injury caused by fencing wire.

In addition to running their busy mobile veterinary clinic, Friendicoes are maintaining a feeding program for working animals during the pandemic, feeding over 160 equines and over 300 cattle during August.

The team also rescued a pony from a canal and a donkey who had sustained a dog bite.

Rescued Equines Remain Safe in Kabul

We have a quick update for our supporters regarding the rescued equines living at our partner group Nowzad's sanctuary in Kabul. Despite the high degree of chaos and uncertainty in Afghanistan currently, Pen Farthing reassured us, "The donkeys and horses are safe for now." Nowzad staff have fortunately been evacuated to England and the team are incredibly busy dealing with all the rescued animals who are in quarantine or kennels.
