

Supporting Rescued Animals Worldwide

One of our most important and rewarding roles at AAA is sponsoring working animals who have been rescued and now live within our beautiful partner sanctuaries around the world.

Through our new Working Animal Rescue Fund, we support no less than 42 rescued working animals in India, Nepal and Israel, including donkeys, camels, horses, mules and bulls.

These special souls have finally found rest, comfort, safety, love and care following brutal work, injuries, abuse or abandonment. Without the existence of our compassionate partner sanctuaries, it is likely they would have died broken and alone on the streets.

<<First Name>>, please enjoy reading the latest updates from our partner sanctuaries, then scroll down to see how you can help support these rescued animals. . .

ILA 🧡

At Friendicoes' Gurgaon Sanctuary in New Delhi, Ila is their little socialite. She loves welcoming guests and toddling after them, asking for scratches. This is in stark contrast to the harsh life she previously endured as a working donkey. When Ila was rescued, she had a deep saddle wound and needed urgent veterinary care. Now, she has been at the sanctuary for eight and a half years. She is a picture of health and loved by all.

PAULIE 🧡

Paulie was abandoned by her owner in 2019 and was left to fend for herself on the streets with no food or shelter. At the time, she was suffering from lameness, alopecia, wounds and a missing eye. Thankfully, she was rescued by our partner group, Animal Nepal, and made a full recovery. Paulie is still a nervous horse but loves spending time with her best friend, Jackie, who is a rescued mule.

NESS 🧡

Ness lives at Pegasus Sanctuary in Israel, following a horrific and cruel attack, where he was set alight and left to die. The incredible team at Pegasus went through months of heartbreaking, challenging burns therapy to save Ness and it is miraculous he survived (Ness means 'miracle' in Hebrew). His resilience still astounds the team and he loves getting hugs from everyone.

BLACKY 🧡

Blacky lives at Help in Suffering's Camel Rescue Centre in Bassi, India. He was rescued from Shahjahanpur in 2015, just before he was about to be slaughtered. Blacky loves eating groundnut straw and is a very calm and gentle-natured camel.

Look at how contented and peaceful the rescued camels and donkeys are at Help in Suffering's sanctuary!

As some of you will remember, we previously ran a sponsorship program where individual animals were sponsored by individual donors. However, this has now been replaced with AAA's Working Animal Rescue Fund.

This fund will enable us to continue assisting the animals from our sponsorship program, but we are counting on your generous support to provide them with ongoing care, food and a safe haven.

It costs $25,000 annually to support these animals, yet every dollar counts! From just $5, you can help us ensure these rescued animals are given a second chance at life and never have to work again.

Thank you for your support! 🙏
